

Halkshill and Blairpark 20.03.2020

Ground preparation has continued this week, the machines are working in the drier areas on site following the weather patterns this Spring.

Further marking out is happening on site to ensure planting polygons are marked out ahead of machines accessing these areas on site.

Quality is being controlled through the use of experienced operators on site and continual supervision of works.

